

2014 GCCCD Annual Conference - First Announcement

October 04–05, 2014

NH Hotel Berlin Alexanderplatz

Landsberger Allee 26-32

D-10249 Berlin

The 2014 GCCCD Annual Conference will bring together researchers and industrial scientists as well as students from all over Germany in Berlin, October 04–05, 2014, at the NH Hotel Berlin Alexanderplatz.

The topic of the 2014 annual conference is “Chemistry and Industry”. We will create a vital forum to present and discuss the latest and most exciting aspects concerning about Chemistry and Industry together with renowned chemists from academia and industrial representatives.

In addition, at the 2014 GCCCD Annual Conference we will launch a new platform for enthusiastic and talented young researchers, namely the “GCCCD Young Researchers Award”, which will be awarded during the conference for the first time.

The 2014 GCCCD Annual Conference is supported by the Education Department of the Embassy of the P.R. China in Germany as well as by several companies (cf. below). We are grateful for their generous support.

1. Registration:

All participants are kindly asked to register for the conference on-line:
